

Esther Cohen, Vice President for Membership, grew up in the Conservative movement in Peabody. She was an active member of USY at Temple Nir Tamid, graduated from Cohen Hillel Academy, and attended Camp Pembroke for 12 years. Esther made Aliyah in 2008 and moved back to Boston with her husband Jonathan Amerikaner in 2012. Esther is the Business Manager for Bioengineering at Northeastern University. She and Jonathan moved to Natick in 2013 and have 2 children, Leo and Maya. Both children attend the Judy Gordon Early Learning Center. Esther is a past chair of the Parent Association for JGELC and a past co-chair of Temple Israel's Family Task Force. Esther loves being a part of the TI Natick community! A fun fact about Esther is that she owns a wine tour company in Israel called My Israel Wine Tours—enjoy a glass of wine with Esther at any of the Temple's wonderful Family Shabbat dinners!
