Saturday night, August 28, at Temple Israel of Natick

Services will also be live streamed: Live stream here

Selichot: The Many Meanings of Returning

Participating Congregations:

Congregation Or Atid, Wayland; Temple Beth Sholom,
Framingham; Temple Beth Torah, Holliston

Join the Clergy from our Metrowest congregations for soulful music and reflections for a new year, as we begin to re-emerge into a constantly changing world.

8:30pm: Discussion: Clergy from Temple Israel, Beth Sholom, Or Atid, and Beth Torah will present short teachings around the theme of “Teshuvah: The Many Meanings of Returning.” Learn and share insights with our clergy.

9:30 pm: Selichot Services: Greet the High Holy Days with the traditional melodies and themes of the Days of Awe.
