Harvey Leonard Moskowitz

to receive the Maurice and Lilian Geshelin Humanitarian Award

This award recognizes the highest level of service to the community. Our honoree continues this tradition of exemplifying the rich and varied ways of caring deeply about our own, and the wider, community. Established in 1971, this award acknowledges the importance of a life unselfishly dedicated to synagogue and community.

Carole Lechan

to receive the C. Bernie Sigalove Yesod Award for Public Service and Dedication to Jewish Communal Life

Yesod is the Hebrew word for foundation. As a founding member of the temple and past president, C. Bernie Sigalove embodied a life long commitment to Temple Israel and to the larger community. This award honors Bernie and the entire generation of builders, upon whose foundation Temple Israel stands and continues to build.
